

CREA S-35 Section 3. Beginning Journalism (CRN: 30121)

June Carolyn Erlick MSJ, Publications Director, David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies, Harvard University

An intensive workshop for those interested in writing for newspapers or magazines. Assignments may include a short factual report, longer researched article, personal reportage, editorial, obituary, profile, critical review, and query letter. Reporting, interviewing, researching, and writing effectively are stressed, and ethical and legal concerns for a journalist addressed.
